Micro-Internships

Get Experience. Get Paid. Get Hired.

Through Micro-Internships, students and recent graduates can demonstrate skills, explore career paths, and expand their networks. Unlike traditional internships, these opportunities are not tied to the academic calendar, tend to be remote, are short-term (typically 10 to 40 in total), and are deadline-driven as opposed to set during specific hours - perfect for early career talent with erratic or hectic schedules!

Make Sure Your Profile Evolves With You

As the end of the spring term nears, reflect on your experiences and whether your career goals have changed or become more defined. You've likely evolved into a different candidate than the one you were at the beginning of the year. Update your Parker Dewey profile to match.
