Micro-Internships

Get Experience. Get Paid. Get Hired.

Through Micro-Internships, students and recent graduates can demonstrate skills, explore career paths, and expand their networks. Unlike traditional internships, these opportunities are not tied to the academic calendar, tend to be remote, are short-term (typically 10 to 40 in total), and are deadline-driven as opposed to set during specific hours - perfect for early career talent with erratic or hectic schedules!

This Month:
Sell Yourself with a Story

You may have noticed that our applications now ask you to give a specific example to support why you think you should be selected. Read this month's newsletter to understand how a short story about a previous experience makes you a more compelling candidate.
